

MRS. AL DAVIS PAST CRISIS.

Former Miss Eugenia Kelly still unable to talk, however. Dr. Louis Nott Lanehart of Hempstead, L. I., said this morning that the condition of Mrs. Al Davis was much better and unless complications set in he expected gradual improvement. She has recovered consciousness to such an extent that she is able to nod her head when she is asked a question, but is not able to talk. The doctor said he did not know that an operation would be necessary, as the patient will have to be much stronger before a thorough examination can be made of her injuries. She is now out of danger, he added.

MOOSE HOLDS UP ITS ULTIMATUM TO OLD GUARD

National Executive Committee Meets Here and Continues Negotiations.

There will be no ultimatums nor breaks in relations between Progressives and Republicans for the present. No matter how much both parties denounce President Wilson for diplomatic not writing, both Bull Moose and Old Guard are to continue political negotiations looking to peaceful combination in conventions at Chicago next month.

Eight men, constituting the National Executive Committee of the Progressive Party, with Col. Roosevelt in the convenient background on the telephone, met to-day at No. 30 East Forty-second Street to determine the future course of the party. They were George W. Perkins, New York, Chairman; William Flinn, Pennsylvania; Walter Browne, Ohio; Harold Ickes, Illinois; Matthew Hale, Massachusetts, and, as proxies for absent members, William Hamilton Childs, Brooklyn; Horace Wilkinson, Syracuse; E. A. Van Valkenburg, Philadelphia.

Their deliberations were behind closed doors, but it was evident from individual expressions that they still hope the Republican Convention will eventually nominate Col. Roosevelt as its candidate for President, thereby enabling complete fusion and harmony between the two parties. The Mexican troubles are counted as stimulating the country into that "heroic mood" which the Colonel stipulated as the requirement for his candidacy. The Colonel restrained himself to-day to brief comments on President Wilson, saying:

"I haven't any interest in ultimatums that fall to ultimatums. The latest Wilson note is up to his usual standard. Whether they apply to Villa, Obregon, Carranza or to the German Empire, I don't care for ultimatums that don't ultimatums."

"It is peculiar that we will adopt one standard toward Hayti because it is smaller, and another toward Mexico because it is bigger. It is indefensible."

The Colonel spent most of the day on "literary labors" at his desk in the Metropolitan Magazine office, but later in the afternoon he went to join the Executive Committee arranging details for the Progressive Convention that meets in Chicago one day ahead of the Republicans.

Meantime the committeemen were discussing the mixed political situation that makes both Progressive and Republican leaders. The latter have been doing some tabulating on convention delegates recently, putting forth claims of having Roosevelt pocketed. Mr. Perkins' attention was called to statements that unpledged Republican delegates were being counted against Roosevelt.

"How many unpledged delegates are you counting for Col. Roosevelt?" was asked.

"There have been chosen so far to the Republican National Convention 781 delegates, of whom 252 are pledged, leaving 529 unpledged or free to follow their best judgment," said Mr. Perkins. "An unfortunate attempt is being made to create the impression that all these unpledged delegates can be counted as so many votes against Roosevelt."

"This is not the fact. If unpledged means anything it means that the delegate is not pledged for or against any candidate and, of course, this is what the voters who elected him intended when they refrained from instructing him. To take any other position means to reflect on the sincerity and good intention of the delegate."

BRITAIN ENROLLS
LAST OF UNMARRIED
MEN IN SERVICE

Also Recalls All Eligible Married Men Who Are Living Abroad.

LONDON, May 10.—Beginning to-day, the last of Great Britain's unmarried men eligible for army service began to get into khaki. In all sections of the country, those eighteen years of age reported at training depots. They will remain in training until they have reached the age of nineteen, at which time they will be subject to service in actual warfare.

It is expected that within a month every eligible single man, whether attested under the Derby recruiting scheme or liable for service under the Conscription Act, will have left civilian pursuits for war duty.

Carrying out pledges to the married eligibles, made in the House of Commons, the Government is rapidly taking single men from munition factories and other governmental positions. They are being replaced by women.

The first groups of unmarried men who attested for service under the Derby plan are now beginning to assume the appearance of trained troops. They have been in service more than a month. Their ages range from nineteen to twenty-six.

All married Englishmen eligible for military service who are living abroad but who ordinarily are residents of Great Britain must return to England forthwith and report for military duty.

This announcement was made in the House of Commons by Sir George Cave, the Solicitor General.

WOMAN WHO IS CHARGED WITH POISONING AND MAN WHO MADE THE ARREST

NO PORTIA TO DEFEND TWO ACTORS JAILED AS LOITERERS ON RIALTO

Thespians Out of Jobs Must Keep Moving on Broadway, Rules Court.

Thespians bowed to the majesty of the law this morning. That part of the Rialto from the Palace Theatre along Seventh Avenue to Forty-seventh Street has been infested by groups out of jobs, who have been known to ogle pretty girls while studying the latest styles of lingerie.

They must linger no longer on the Rialto. They must walk. That was what Magistrate Ten Eyck told two of them in the West Side Police Court this morning.

Six alleged Thespians were summoned for loitering, by Policeman William Loeb, yesterday afternoon at Forty-seventh Street and Seventh Avenue. Two of them, Jay Herman of the Hotel Bonta and Edward Kane of No. 30 Linden Avenue, Brooklyn, rushed to court immediately and told Magistrate Barlow they were leaving town this morning to fill engagements, and rather than disappoint the waiting millions outside of New York, the Magistrate let them go.

Joseph Brady and George Williams were fined $1 each by Magistrate Ten Eyck in the same court this morning. "You gods! And no Portia to defend them. They had no dollar each and forthwith to a dungeon they were ordered. It was to them that Magistrate Ten Eyck delivered his ultimatum for the Rialto."

Lafayette Henninbinger declared he was a jewelry salesman. Bill Dale of No. 115 Forty-fifth Street, admitted he was an actor. Both said they would fight the charge. The trial was set for Friday and the men were paroled till then.

MEDAL FOR POLICE HERO.

Grace Saved a Man from Drowning, but Said Little About It Himself.

Patrolman Luke H. Grace of the Harbor Squad was presented with a Congressional Medal for bravery by Police Commissioner Arthur Woods at Police Headquarters to-day. In making the presentation Commissioner Woods said he was proud to have men in the police service of the type of Police Officer Grace. He was a man who had fallen into the water.

Grace made a report of the accident, dismounting his bicycle, and with a few words, Congressman Charles Fox said, well heard of the rescue from an eye-witness, and was so impressed that he called the matter to the attention of Congress and had the medal awarded.

UNEQUALLED SAFETY RECORD

No Passenger Killed in Year on 325 American Railroads.

CHICAGO, May 10.—All railway safety records were broken in 1915 when 325 American roads, reporting to the Bureau of Railway News and Statistics here, went through the entire fiscal year to June 30 without a single fatality to a passenger in a train accident. The roads reporting operate 16,918 miles of line. It is stated that this record of safe operation has never been equaled by the railroads of any other country.

All American roads in 1915, operating over 250,000 miles of line, reported 196 passengers killed in all railway accidents. In comparison, the latest returns from Europe, with 197,615 miles, show 700 passengers killed.

Convicted of Adulterating Cream.

The Hamilton Dairy Company, of No. 620 West One Hundred and Thirty-first Street, through its counsel, Philip Goodheart, pleaded guilty to-day in Special Sessions, Manhattan, to adulterating cream. A driver for the concern was arrested Feb. 26, by Bureau of Health inspectors. Analysis showed the cream was 13 per cent deficient in fat. Sentence will be imposed on the company Monday. Records of the Board of Health show fifteen prior convictions against the corporation for similar offenses.

SEEK MORE POISON
VICTIMS IN GRAVES OF 'HOME' INMATES

ville, a sister of Mrs. Gilligan, is conducting the home. Seven attachments on the property were filed yesterday, three of which seek to insure the return of money paid to Mrs. Gilligan for the life care of inmates. The others were served by trade-men.

The contract system by which inmates of the Archer Home paid a lump sum, usually $1,000, to be cared for as long as they lived, is relied upon by the State to show Mrs. Gilligan's motive for the crime charged against her. Mrs. Gilligan has retained Benedict M. Holden of Hartford and Fred B. Hungerford of New Britain as her counsel. Holden was formerly a New York attorney and identified with the yellow taxicab litigation there about two years ago. He visited Mrs. Gilligan in jail here to-day together with her daughter, Mary E. Archer, a girl of eighteen.

"We know mother is innocent," declared the daughter to the reporters, "and we will fight the case against her to the end."

BOUGHT POISON JUST BEFORE
ANDREWS DIED.

Capt. Robert T. Hurley, who began an investigation thirteen months ago into the deaths at the Archer Home, when seen by a reporter for The Evening World was emphatic in his statement that the case against Mrs. Gilligan was not based solely on circumstantial evidence.

"We know she bought poison just before Andrews died," he said, "and we found poison in the body. There is a great deal of evidence available which we could not get before, because we did not want to let it become known that we were investigating. Now we can go ahead and get that evidence. Of course, I merely carry out the orders of the State's Attorney, but I feel safe in saying the investigation will be pushed harder than ever from now on."

From other sources it was learned that the State's Attorney is in possession of direct evidence tending to show that Mrs. Gilligan was responsible for patients taking poison which resulted in their death.

"I am convinced it was a case of cool, calculating, premeditated murder," Mr. Alcorn said. He is understood to have evidence warranting a definite suspicion of murder in seven cases, while other estimates of the probable number of deaths of suspicious nature in the home run as high as twenty.

There have been forty-eight deaths at the Archer Home since Jan. 1, 1911, forty-seven of which were inmates. During that same period at the Old Peoples' Home in this city practically the same number of deaths have occurred, with about six times as many inmates in the local institution as in the "home" at Windsor. Considering the fact that the same class of inmates are taken in both institu-

MADE MANY PURCHASES OF POISONS "FOR RATS."

The poison sale record at the store of W. H. H. Mason in Windsor shows that on Sept. 11, 1908, Mrs. Archer Gilligan bought thirteen ounces of corrosive sublimate of potash "for bed bugs;" on Oct. 21, 1913, four ounces of arsenic for "rats and mice;" on Feb. 17, 1914, ten ounces of arsenic acid "for rats," and on May 26, 1914, four days before the death of Andrews, two ounces of arsenic "for rats," and on June 19, 1914, one pound of arsenic "for bugs and mice."

State policemen made a thorough search of the home yesterday, taking away several bottles of medicine and other liquids, the contents of which the State's attorney will have examined.

Dr. H. F. King, medical examiner at Windsor, who signed the Andrews death certificate, said to-day he believed Mrs. Gilligan innocent. He held no brief for the woman, he explained, and did not feel he was implicated in the case.

Clark Edward, retired builder in Windsor, who used to take occasional meals at Mrs. Gilligan's, was taken violently ill after dinner there one night about a year ago, since when he has not visited the home. He had been asked by Mrs. Gilligan to loan her $1,500, but on investigating the state of her finances at that time he decided not to let her have the money. He had been told by neighbors that "there was something mysterious about the number of deaths at the Archer home," but he would not say whether he had ever seen anything there himself which made him suspicious.

2,000 PROTEST AGAINST SCHOOL LUNCH FUND

It Is Inferior and Costs Too Much, Erasmus Students Say in Petition.

A petition demanding better and cheaper food in their school lunch room was put in circulation by students of Erasmus Hall High School yesterday. By evening 2,000 had signed it.

Horace Greeley of No. 140 Clinton Street, great grandson of the editor, heads the students in their protest.

"The rates for food are exorbitant and the class inferior to what we can get outside for less money," said Greeley to a World reporter last night. When asked what action the students might take if their demands were not met Greeley remarked:

"Just wait and see; perhaps it will be a walkout. We intend to wait, however, until Dr. Gunnison returns before any decisive action is taken." Dr. Walter Gunnison, Principal of Erasmus, is suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Students also declare the lunch-rooms are unsanitary, particularly those of the girls.

Out of Work, Killed Himself.

Miss Anna Gowke, fifty years old, killed herself by gas in her home at No. 774 Jackson Avenue, the Bronx, this morning. Her body was discovered by neighbors. She had lived alone in the apartment for several years and worked as a cloakmaker until she lost her position a few months ago. In a letter she said she was ending her life because of her inability to get work.

STRIKING ENGINEERS
MAY TIE UP FERRIES

Leader Declares Shipping Activity in Harbor Will Be Paralyzed Unless Tug Owners Yield.

The Marine Engineers Beneficial Association, which has nearly brought the work of harbor boats to a standstill by its strike for increased wages and one day off a week, met to-day, called by Thomas L. Delahanty, Secretary and Treasurer of the union and strike manager. The strike seemed to have reached a deadlock to-day and Mr. Delahanty was emphatic in declaring a decision must be reached without further delay.

"We have no wish to antagonize or inconvenience the public," he said. "We have tried to show our determination and strength to the tugboat owners and lighterage men without causing inconvenience to the rest of the community. But to win in our just cause, we must apparently go further. If the employers refuse to consider our grievances it will become necessary to tie up all harbor craft, even ferries. We hope not."

to be forced to do that." Officials of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad said six of the twelve tugs of the line were being operated by non-union men. Delahanty and his aides were confident the six tugs would be tied up to-night, with all the company's lighters, throwing 180 men out of work.

Many ocean liners are now going into dock under their own power at some risk.
